Frequently Asked Questions:

- Q. If someone provides a Gift Certificate of an amount greater than their purchase, should I give change?
- A. Yes, your business will receive the full face value of the Gift Certificate.
- Q. What do I do with the Gift Certificate once redeemed by the customer?
- A. Gift Certificates are processed just like a check. Include them with your normal bank deposits.
- Q. Gift Certificates are valid for 6 months. What should I do if presented with an expired Gift Certificate?
- A. Process the transaction normally and bring the expired Gift Certificate to the Chamber for reissuance to your business.
- Q. Is there a cost to my business to participate?
- A. No.
- Q. Where can people purchase Chamber Gift Certificates?
- A. Gift Certificates in any denomination can be purchased at the Chamber of Commerce office, 238 Market Street, Bloomsburg. Please allow 2-3 business days for processing.
- Q. Is there an additional cost to purchase Chamber Gift Certificates?
- A. Not when using cash or check. There is a courtesy fee for using a credit card.
- Q. How do people know where they can use the Gift Certificates?
- A. A Chamber Membership Directory is provided with every Gift Certificate.
